Re: United States v. Asim Hameedi, 17 Cr. 137 (JGK)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

We represent defendant Asim Hameedi in the above-referenced matter. We write respectfully to request a temporary modification of Dr. Hameedi's supervised release to permit him to travel internationally to Toronto, Canada from February 27, 2024 through March 4, 2024. Dr. Hameedi seeks this travel authorization to allow him to sit for the second round of the Canadian medical licensing board examinations.

Dr. Hameedi began his two-year period of supervised release in January 2023. His Probation Officer reported recently that he is in full compliance with his supervised release conditions. Also, Dr. Hameedi has paid in full his monetary obligations under his sentence and judgment, including restitution, fine, and special assessment. (See ECF Doc. 514, 12.2.2021).

Dr. Hameedi will provide his Probation Officer with a detailed itinerary of his requested travel, including travel and hotel information for his trip.

We have conferred with the United States Probation Officer Lisa Famularo, who has no objection to this travel request. We further conferred with Assistant United States Attorney Michael Neff who, on behalf of the government, also has no objection.

Respectfully yours,

Henry E. Mazurek
Counsel for Defendant Asim Hameedi
